W. P. Carey School of Business, Seidman Research Institute is pleased to invite you to a Forum focused on Clean Energy. This forum will feature Richard L. Kauffman, Senior Advisor to U.S. Secretary of Energy Steven Chu and one of the country's leading experts on private sector investment in clean energy. Richard will discuss the Department of Energy's activities, the success of its clean energy programs in Arizona, access to capital for clean energy and energy efficiency projects, and new initiatives to expand private sector investment in clean energy by tapping capital markets.

Richard L. Kauffman, Senior Advisor to U.S. Secretary of Energy Steven Chu:

Richard is one of the country's leading experts on private sector investment in clean energy. Before coming to the Department of Energy, he was Chief Executive Officer of Good Energies, Inc., managing director and chair of the Global Financing Group at Goldman Sachs, vice chairman of Morgan Stanley's Institutional Securities business, and co-head of its Banking Department. Richard has also served as the chairman of the board of Levi Strauss & Co., and on the boards of several nonprofit organizations, including the Brookings Institution.
